Annika - Your nightmare in Chicago topped mine!! Glad you finally made it home. All I could think about in Chicago was that I wanted to be HOME. My suitcases followed me well...a bit beaten up, but there nonetheless.

Yes, I have been cleaning my house, too. Jim tried valiently and even got in a neighbor to help clean..but, some guys don't know there are such things as corners (he vacuumed the middle), or that towels need to be folded, and that one needs to clean the refrigerator once in a while.

Got a peach of a lovely class this year. They are making it easy me to be back in school so soon. I am very fortunate.

Take care!! Sleep some more and clean.
